NORTH AFRICAN VICTORY COMPLETE

ALLIED MOPPING-UP PARTIES HUNTED LAST REMNANTS OF ENEMY

ALL ORGANIZED RESISTANCE ENDED AND 175,000 PRISONERS

By WILLIAM B. KING
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS in North Africa, May 13.—(P)—Allied mopping up parties hunted the last ragged remnant of Hitler's African armies in Tunisia today to round out a victory which Gen. Sir Harold Alexander said was "one of the most complete and decisive in history."
A military spokesman estimated that the prisoners would total "near 175,000" when the last of the holdout detachments were rounded up in the offensive launched May 5.
All organized resistance had ended.
The allied air force, with no more targets in North Africa, moved its aerial offensive across the Mediterranean.

German and Italian armies were crushed and their commander in chief, Col. Gen. Jürgen von Arnim was among the 150,000 captives already counted.

Lieut. Gen. K. A. N. Anderson of the British First Army received von Arnim yesterday in his headquarters tent after the German, refusing to accept terms of unconditional surrender, was driven nearly 100 miles by automobile for an interview.

Will Not Matter.
"The situation is such that if von Arnim won't sign the terms it won't matter anyway."

Von Arnim was cornered by the Fourth Indian division near Ste. Marie du Zit midway between Tunis and Enfidaville and on the approach to the Cap Bon Peninsula. He sent out envoys under a white flag and then surrendered, but declined to sign the terms. These were that the enemy cease destruction of war material, reveal details of mine fields and assist in clearing them.

The small pockets of enemy soldiers who fought on either had not heard about the general debacle or preferred to remain in action despite the surrender of their commander.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, reviewing the six-month campaign, said General Alexander, his deputy commander in chief in charge of ground forces, maneuvered cleverly so that the First Army got in the knockout punch from the west while the bulk of the enemy troops were held on the southern front by the fact "every one, including the Germans" expected.

W. T. PARKER DIED THURSDAY MORNING; FUNERAL ON FRIDAY

LONG-TIME CORSICANA RESIDENT IN POLITICS AND BUSINESS

W. T. Parker, age 85 years, died at his home, 1032 West Sixth Avenue, Thursday morning. Funeral services will be held from the Sutherland-McCammon chapel Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. F. Bohnfalk, pastor of the First Methodist church, will conduct the services. Interment will be in Oakwood.

A native of Illinois, Mr. Parker had been a resident of Corsicana 12 years. During that time he engaged in a number of business enterprises, but devoted most of his time to dealing in real estate. He was a prominent Odd Fellow, being a member of every branch of the organization here. He was a trustee in the order at the time of his death and had held a number of offices in the organization. He also took an active part in politics and was Democratic county chairman for a number of years.

RENEWED ACTIVITY IN NEW GUINEA—Allied patrols are clashing with Japanese near Salamaua, New Guinea, a communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said, a possible prelude to renewal of land fighting quiescent since Buna was conquered (solid arrow) last January. Allies hold the village of Bordubi, five miles southwest of Salamaua, and are skirmishing with the Japanese in nearby regions. Japanese air raiders struck Merauke, and Flying Fortresses hit an airdrome near Rabaul, New Britain.

Churchill Will Address Congress Next Wednesday

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(P)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Britain will address the American Congress next Wednesday at 11:30 a. m., Central War Time.

Speaker Rayburn of the house invited him this morning, he accepted, and Rayburn returned to the capitol to arrange a joint senate-house session.

The White House said, meanwhile, that a radio address Churchill has scheduled for tomorrow afternoon (2 p. m. EDT), will be almost entirely for home consumption in England.

It will carry out a promise made before the prime minister came to the United States to honor the anniversary of the British Home Guards. American networks will carry the address if they wish.

Whether Churchill's speech to congress will be broadcast is up to Rayburn.

What the theme of it will be and whether it will give any clues to reasons for the current Roosevelt meeting, the White House did not say. But it will give the prime minister a forum for analyzing the Tunisian victory and its relation to the future conduct of the war, if he wants to make this use of it.

REPUTATION EIGHTH ARMY HELD BULK OF ENEMY BEFORE IT

FIRST ARMY THEN GOT IN KNOCKOUT PUNCH, EISENHOWER SAYS

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS in North Africa, May 13.—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, reviewing his six-month campaign in North Africa, said today the final blow was struck in a clever move by which the bulk of the enemy troops were held on the Eighth Army front while the First Army got in the knockout punch.

The reputation of the Eighth Army alone was enough to hold powerful enemy forces in front of it," the commander in chief said.

"There was a peculiar circumstance at the end which Gen. Sir Harold Alexander (deputy commander in chief in charge of ground forces) took advantage of. In many punches the Eighth Army delivered hammer blows while the other units served as the anvil. Because of its efficiency, the Eighth Army got an enormous reputation, with everyone, including the Germans, expecting the killing punch to come from it."

General Eisenhower counted on that. He built up the First Army and, to make its (western) front still stronger, brought around some of the Eighth Army to the First Army front. The Germans thought the real fight was coming from the south."

BRITISH BOMBERS DELIVERED HEAVIEST ATTACK ON GERMANY

DUISBURG BLASTED BY 1,500 TONS BOMBS; 34 BOMBERS WERE LOST

LONDON, May 13.—(P)—British bombers delivered their heaviest attack of the war on Germany last night, dropping more than 1,500 tons of bombs on the battered industrial center of Duisburg, it was announced today.

Thirty-four bombers were reported lost in the raid—the first great night attack on the Reich since the smashing assault on Dortmund May 4.

Allied raiders followed up this assault by streaming across the English channel this morning in bright sunlight to smash at the coast of occupied France. The rumble of heavy explosions rolled back across the channel, and later twin-motored bombers came winging home under a swarming escort of fighters.

Duisburg, situated at the junction of the Rhine and Ruhr, is a vital transport and communications center in addition to being the site of important war industries.

It was last night the night of April 26, when heavy RAF bombers unloaded 1,350 tons of high explosives on the city in one of the mightiest assaults undertaken by the RAF up to that time.

The communique did not specify the exact weight of bombs dropped on Duisburg, but characterized the raid unequivocally as "the heaviest attack of the war."

Great Weight of Bombs.
The greatest weight of bombs previously loosed on a single target was 1,500 tons—a record that

OPA CHIEF PLANS TO HIRE 1,400 MORE PRICE PROBERS

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(P)—Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown today disclosed plans to hire 1,400 more investigators to check the cost of living, and said the OPA's new subsidy program will be strictly experimental.

Job of the new probers will be to locate and report on price violators and punish willful "cheaters," Brown said. Aides estimated that effective enforcement, depending mostly on adequate personnel, could cut the cost of living 5 per cent.

By such enforcement—and careful use of subsidies—Brown said in an interview, OPA experts expect to bring down the cost of living to the level of Sept. 15, 1942, and hold it there.

He added that his recently announced plan to seek a 10 per cent reduction in the retail costs of meat, butter and coffee about June 1 through subsidies was experimental. The future of subsidies, he said, will depend on actual results of the next month.

The 1,400 extra investigators, Brown explained, will be added to an existing force of approximately 3,500.

RAGING REVOLT IN OCCUPIED COUNTRIES REPORTED SPREADING

REPORTS OF SABOTAGE, ARMED CLASHES AND GENERAL RESISTANCE

LONDON, May 13.—(P)—Reports from the continent today said revolt was raging in occupied Holland and had spread "like wildfire" across the border into Belgium, where there was a series of attacks on German troops, military establishments and communications.

Reverberations of the allied victory in Africa were said to be shaking the whole of Hitler's Europe.

Accounts of sabotage, armed clashes and general resistance poured in from Poland, Norway, Yugoslavia, and Greece, but the Dutch and Belgians appeared to be giving Nazi occupation forces the greatest trouble.

There were indications in reports reaching here that the Germans were sending additional troops into the low countries, but it was not clear whether this was in anticipation of an allied invasion or to suppress rebellion.

Belgian patriots were reported to have stormed a military garage in Ghent, killing 14 guards and demolishing 11 trucks with hand grenades. Others derailed and wrecked trains on the Malines-Louvain and Namur-Huy lines, local

MINES OPERATED BY AFL UNION MEN TO BE RELEASED

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(P)—Lloyd Thrush, president of the AFL-Progressive Mine Workers, announced today that the government had agreed to release from its operating control all mines in Illinois having contracts with his union.

Thrush said Fuels Administrator Ickes had informed him that orders for the release, first to be granted since the government took over the mines May 1, would go into effect this afternoon or tomorrow.

Released, he said, will be 150 mines in Illinois employing 15,000 members of the AFL union.

Thrush said he and AFL President William Green had agreed to these would be no work stoppage at these mines and that the Progressive mine workers would make no attempt to raid the membership of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

Thrush and W. C. Gill, president of the Coal Producers Association of Illinois, conferred with Ickes' deputies today on final arrangements for the release.

NAZI COMMANDER IN AFRICA REFUSED SIGN SURRENDER

GEN. VON ARNIM MORE CONCERNED OVER BAGGAGE THAN HIS TROOPS

By DANIEL DeLUCE
BRITISH FIRST ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Tunisia, May 13.—(P)—Dust-strained Col. Gen. Jürgen von Arnim, captured commander of the Axis forces in Africa, refused to sign the surrender terms of Lieut. Gen. K. A. N. Anderson and was sent to the rear today more anxious about his baggage than his troops.

Driven nearly 100 miles in an automobile after sending out envoys with a white flag and surrendering, von Arnim was received last night by Gen. Anderson in a green pasture from which he directed the drive of his forces.

Gen. Anderson's refused terms were that the enemy cease destruction of war material, relinquish weapons undamaged, give details of mine fields and aid in clearing them—but the refusal was academic.

Gen. Anderson himself told war correspondents that he didn't matter anything, underlining the completeness of the axis debacle.

Officially von Arnim was captured by troops of the British Eighth Army's Fourth Indian Division which attacked the enemy's First Army a week ago.

Cornered near Ste. Marie du Zit, von Arnim sent out envoys with a white flag, surrendered and was interviewed last night by Gen. Anderson in his pasture tent. After that the British leader met allied war correspondents.

Von Arnim and all other captured generals were accorded full military courtesies.

The inflow of prisoners continued one military source said that the total bag of captives since May 5 probably would approach 150,000.

Standing in the moonlit British headquarters after a hot supper last night, von Arnim's only comments were about his baggage which was being transferred from one truck to another.

RIGHT KIND CROP WEATHER OVER LARGE PART OF NATION

CHICAGO, May 13.—(P)—Crops got the kind of weather they needed in many important areas during last week—and the 1943 battle of food production, which had been encountering resistance, managed to make considerable gains.

This was the opinion of grain men today, based upon the week's state-by-state crop report of the weather bureau. It meant that the outlook for crops was better than at the start of the month with millions of bushels added to prospects prevailing at that time.

The weather bureau reported conditions in important producing states to include:
TEXAS—Temperatures were favorable for growth during last week, but more rain is needed badly in the South and West. Scattered rain in Northwest brought temporary relief and revived winter wheat where soil was drying rapidly, but more rain is still needed to mature crop.

ACTIVE UNREST IS REPORTED SPREADING INTO BELGIUM ALSO

REPORTS SAY CONQUERED PEOPLES RISING IN SERIES ATTACKS ON NAZIS

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor.

Open revolt was reported raging in Nazi-occupied Holland and spreading "like wildfire" across the frontier into Belgium today as the deadline arrived for Holland's 400,000 ex-servicemen to submit to reinterment as a precaution against their aiding an allied invasion of Europe.

Reports from the continent reaching London said the conquered people had risen in a series of attacks on German troops, military establishments and communications.

Only last night, the Dutch government-in-exile had urged the Dutch ex-soldiers to rebel against the German order and defend themselves against arrest.

Underground advisers said the whole of Hitler's Europe was reverberating with the news of the great allied victory in North Africa.

Armed clashes, sabotage and general resistance against the Nazi conquerors were reported in Poland, Norway, Yugoslavia and Greece.

German troops reinforcements were said to be moving into the low countries, across the channel from England, but it was not immediately clear whether they were to guard against an allied invasion or to suppress rebellion.

Germany Heavily Bombed.
Meanwhile Germany's home front rocked under the heaviest aerial assault of the war before dawn today as a huge fleet of RAF block-buster raiders dropped more than 1,500 tons of bombs on the Nazi transport center of Duisburg (population 400,000).

In bright sunlight this morning, other allied planes streaked across the channel to blast the German-occupied French coast—once known as Hitler's "invasion coast" when England feared a German descent on her island kingdom.

Thirty-four RAF planes were lost in the night attack on Duisburg, Germany's greatest inland port and one of the main keystones in the Nazi transport system.

A British air ministry communique said without qualification that it was "the heaviest attack of the war," surpassed the record of 1,500 tons of bombs unleashed in the RAF's 1,000-plane raid on Cologne nearly a year ago.

The unprecedented assault came as Italy's Premier Mussolini acknowledged that the last axis resistance had ceased in the battle of Tunisia, ending a six-month campaign which cost the German and Italian armies the loss of more

NEW ALLIED BLOWS AGAINST JAPAN ARE SHARPLY FORECAST

HALSEY AND MACARTHUR CONFER; INDIA CONSIDERED AS BASE

(By The Associated Press.)
New allied blows against Japan in the Southwest Pacific and the India-Burma theater were sharply foreshadowed in a series of developments today.

The highlights:
1. At an advanced U. S. Base in the South Pacific, it was officially disclosed that Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., the navy's fighting commander in the South Seas, had conferred with Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Australia and mapped plans for "utilizing the total means at their disposal."

Significance was added by the fact that it was their first meeting since the war began.

2. In Washington, informed sources declared the strategic possibilities of India as a base for major operations against Japan were apparently one of the main topics under discussion by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

Also on the capital scene, in close touch with the allied leaders, was Field Marshal Sir Archibald P. Wavell, Admiral Sir James Somerville and Air Chief Marshal Sir Richard P. Pearse.

Observers pointed out that these three direct the only land, sea and air forces in position to open a route for heavy movement of supplies to embattled China—via the long-coasted Burma road.

LEGISLATURE QUITS WEDNESDAY MORNING AFTER COMPROMISE

APPROPRIATION BILL HAD
DEADLOCKED TWO HOUSES
FOR MANY HOURS

AUSTIN, May 12.—(AP)—A three way compromise today broke a 10-hour deadlock between house and senate to the governor the last major appropriation bill of the general session of the legislature.

The legislature adjourned sine die at 10:47 a. m. It was the $23,050,740 departmental appropriation bill which the house had refused for hours to accept because the senate had pared liquor control board appropriations to $650,000 a year for each year of the next biennium, a cut of $390,000.

After hours of wrangling the senate upped the liquor appropriation to $680,000 yearly and it appeared doubtful that the house would accept the revision until Governor Coke R. Stevenson agreed that he would grant a deficiency appropriation up to $75,000 if the liquor board needed it for enforcement purposes.

The house vote of 106 to 18 for acceptance of the bill—in the form of a conference committee report—wound up floor work of the 48th general session which had voted to adjourn sine die at noon yesterday. Passage of the departmental measure resulted in a cut in major appropriations of $10,593,764 for the biennium beginning Sept. 1, as compared with spending authorized for the current biennium.

SPECIAL HONORS—NAVAL AIR
GUNNERS SCHOOL, Jacksonville, Fla., May 12.—(AP)—Ready now for aerial combat duty, honor student Cpl. Gordon Harrison George of Corsicana, Texas, received his diploma and the commendation of his commanding officer at graduation exercises for his class in aerial gunnery. He is one of ten men selected from his class for special honors. George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. George of 1115 West Collin, Corsicana. Before his enlistment in the Marines he attended Corsicana Senior high school. He was graduated in 1942. George received his earlier Marine training at San Diego, Calif., and earned his non-commissioned officer rating at Aviation Machinist School. The course just completed has made the 17-year-old Leatherneck an expert with all Marine and Navy small arms, including the big 50 caliber machine guns, bombs, fuses and signal flares. His ability to repair, assemble and shoot with accuracy any of the Marine weapons is attested by his high honor grades. He is now qualified to fight as a machine gunner in any of the Marine and Navy scout, patrol, torpedo or bombing planes. Commander E. E. Dolecek, a Pacific battle veteran now serving as commanding officer of the school, praised the top ranking graduates on their diligence throughout the difficult course.

GREATEST PRESENT NEED* SPIRITUAL 'DRIVE' IN WAR

Crusading Passion Chief Lack of United Nations—The Religious Significance of Present Struggle—Tolerant Apostles Visit Samaria to Put First Things First—Money in Religion

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Careful observers of the war lament that the United Nations are not more active on their most important "front," the spiritual. Religious thought is certainly widespread and God is much in the minds of the people and the service men. Chaplains report that there is more religion in the camps than in civil life. Secret reports from Europe tell of an increase of religion even in Germany and in the occupied lands. The Nazi attempt to destroy the Church has failed. Goebbels has railed bitterly in a broadcast at the tendency of Germans to return to the Church.

All the while it is apparent that the churches have not been affirming for our Cause. If they were the United Nations would be uplifted by a crusading spirit; and by a clear-cut consciousness that our real war aims are Christian, and a struggle for the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth. Such a mood would overwhelm our present political bickerings and our intellectual and economic contentions. "It is the will of God," should be resounding. The ancient Gospel that once shook men's souls, and changed their lives, would be heard ringing from all the pulpits in the land. But the paltry effect of our orgy of pacifism and "liberalism" still lingers.

As It Once Was

Our condition is somewhat like that of old Samaria, in the Lesson Story. It had accepted a partial Christianity, but not enough. It needed vitalization, and to impart that was the mission of Peter and John, sent out from the Church in Jerusalem.

We marvel at the broad-mindedness of those early Christian leaders, who so promptly began to plan for a world-wide extension of the Church. They could so easily—were it not for their Master's command—have settled down to being a self-sufficient and self-contained Jerusalem group; an early pattern of the "exclusive" congregations that dot the world.

That they should choose Samaria as a field for evangelization is an exhibition of toleration that has meaning for today. By most ancient prejudices, "The Jews have no dealing with the Samaritans." Yet Jesus had preached in Samaria, and had repeatedly made Samaritans the heroes of His tales. As Peter and John trudged the big road northward to Samaria, they must have talked together of the times they had walked these same highways with the Master, surely Jacob's well and Sychar, passing their hearts burned within them because of their memories.

Jews regard Samaritans as half-breeds, the descendants of a mixture of heathen with Jews. To this day a colony of some two hundred Samaritans continue to live in Nablus, the ancient Shechem, between Mount Ebal and Mount Gerizim.

Part-Way Religion

When Philip, the evangelist, went up to Samaria he had a partial success. His was like many a revival since, with a community shaken and flocking into the Church; but not subsequently bearing the fruits of the Spirit in individual lives. Even Simon the sorcerer, top magician of the region, took openly to the Christian name, but apparently without altering his practices.

It was to this half-baked group that Peter and John were sent. They found a nominal church which had not received the Holy Spirit. The converts had a part-way religion.

The situation brings us squarely face to face with analogous conditions today. "Religion" is a popular theme heard often on the lips of public men. But it is vague and thin. There is much nebulous talk of God. But of obedience to Him, and of complete dependence upon Him, and of that spiritual fellowship which marks the changed life and the heart at peace, we hear little. We recall Moody's remark that "Some persons have only enough religion to make them miserable."

The Great Educator in Samaria we find exemplified the great mystery of the Christian religion—the gift of the Third Person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. The Samaritan disciples received from Peter and John the supreme bestowal, which vitalizes all Christian belief and empowers all Christian action. He is who makes real the meaning and will of Christ. With Him, religion is a lifeless formality.

Commonly, especially among the more emotional groups, of Christians, the baptism by the Spirit is associated with ecstasy. Paul puts the matter on a more practical basis. "The gift of the Spirit, whose working no man can trace, depends less on how you feel than on how you act. He enumerates the fruits of the spirit—and every fruit is known by its practical bearing. 'The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. . . . If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.'"

Money-Making in Religion One dramatic incident is told in connection with Peter and John's mission to Samaria. Simon, the sorcerer, who had followed the first rush into the group Philip had formed, saw the wonders wrought by the apostles' laying on of hands, and he offered them money for the same gift, which he could use in his business.

"Thy silver perish with thee," hotly replied Peter. "Thou hast bought for thy heart in this matter; for thy heart is not right before God." Forthright Peter added even more blistering condemnation, which has come down the ages as a rebuke to commercialism in religion. Out of the incident comes our word "simony."

Delicate and difficult as is the subject, we are called upon to give serious consideration to the place money holds in the Church. Are we putting too much stress on money? Have we too many hired men and women in religious work? Are some pastors mere "jobs"? We recall the biting old epigram, "In the Early Church we had golden bishops with wooden crostiers; now we have wooden bishops with golden crostiers."

An ecclesiastic was once displaying the treasures of a great Church, and remarked proudly, "No longer can the Church say with Peter, 'Silver and gold have I none.'"

"An no longer can it say," replied his auditor, "Rise up and walk."

Information From Rationing Board

It is not necessary to make personal applications at the rationing board to get canning sugar, stated Wilbur Wright, chairman, Tuesday. Applications must state the number of quarts of fruits which are to be canned, list the names and book numbers of members of the family, and enclose all sugar books in the family, before mailing to Navarro county war price and rationing board.

Contrary to rumors in the county, canning sugar will be available as long as there is any fruit left to can, Wright said.

Corsican Ready For Delivery May Fourteenth

Because of the large number of 1943 "Corsican" sold this year and the splendid co-operation of the students and public in making the coronation and senior play a success, the staff is able to give this Corsican to the subscribers at a reduced price.

The annual school book will be here ready for delivery at noon on Friday, May 14, a complete book giving a good picture of Corsicana high school life in the present school year.

It holds up the traditions of the Corsican; yet it is a patriotic book in that it has been produced as economically as the staff could get the work done.

The cost of the Corsicana is usually $3.50, but the reduction this spring is $1.00, making the books cost $2.50 each. Since one dollar has been deposited, the students will need to bring $1.50 and the deposit receipt in order to get the book Friday.

This year's Corsican has had a splendid staff headed by Jane Burdiss as editor-in-chief, Margaret Anderson as business manager, and Misses Eda Watson and Anna Belle Kiber and Mrs. H. R. Strube, Jr., as sponsors.

The Corsican is unique in that it has had two principals as its sponsors, O. P. Douglas, who left in March, and R. A. Armistead, now principal of high school.

The school sincerely thanks the patrons for the splendid help given this year and invites their inspection and approval of the 1943 Corsican.

LIONS GOVERNOR—Fred H. Harvey, Jr., president of the Corsicana Lions Club, was elected governor of District 2-X, Lions International, at the war activities conference in Corsicana closing Monday night.

He defeated George H. Brown, Valley Mills school superintendent, a former resident of this city.

McDougle is remembered as a star back with Corsicana High School and later with the Rice Institute Owls. He has been in the Marines about a year.

pected the Eighth army again would strike the blow.

Final Bomb Dropped.
Allied armies dropped their final bomb in Africa at mid-morning yesterday. It was dropped by the Desert Air Force, which loosed its first one June 11, 1940, on Tobruk the day after Italy entered the war.

But the air force announced there would be no letup. It means merely that its attacks will be concentrated across the Mediterranean.

On the Southern sector facing Eighth army positions fighting was stubborn throughout yesterday morning, but the battle ended as organized combat during the day.

Enemy resistance collapsed suddenly in the area of Zaghawan, 28 miles south of Tunis. The allied commander announced that the French troops, centering attacks in that area, had captured more than 22,000 prisoners in the final 48 hours of combat.

Forced to Ask for Terms.
Enemy troops surrounded in the coastal sector north of Enfidaville were subjected to a strong bombing attack and this aerial pounding "finally induced the enemy First Army to ask for terms," the communiqué said.

Naval forces, which played an important part in the final stages of the battle by preventing the escape of defeated axis soldiers by boat, continued to patrol the coast of Cap Bon peninsula. During the past few days naval vessels have picked up various craft bound for Pantelleria or Sicily and brought them back to join their 130,000 companions behind barbed wire in Africa.

Speaking of the prisoners, General Anderson said: "Perhaps they will be sent to Canada. At least two-thirds are Germans, which is very gratifying."

Masters of North Africa.
General Alexander, in a man to man talk with his staff in a building tucked away in the Tunisian hills, said "We have wiped out an entire army and today we stand masters of the whole of North Africa."

"This is a great victory, one of the most complete and decisive in history," he said. "We have taken 100,000 prisoners, over 1,000 guns, 250 tanks and a mass of lorries and equipment of all sorts which probably will take days if not weeks to count."

The deputy commander wore slacks and suede shoes and the sleeves of his shirt were rolled up as he addressed the staff, made up of more than 500 officers.

"Three months ago I was called from the western desert to take over the command of the Tunisian front and I had to gather and form a headquarters in the shortest possible time and it was not made any easier because the enemy was then attacking us all down the line and things were not going too well for us," he said. "But, thanks to you, this headquarters was formed in record time x x x This victory was of your making too and its fame and glory belong to every one of you."

General's Last Message.
What is believed to be the last message that Von Arnim sent in his role as commander in chief of the axis forces was found among captured papers.

It said: "The order to defend Tunisia to the last cartridge has been carried out."

Von Arnim, 54, is being given the courtesies of a general officer. Capture of the Silesian aristocrat closes a brilliant career in the armies of Kaiser Wilhelm and Adolf Hitler. He joined the Prussian army in his youth and was made a sub-lieutenant in 1909. He won four decorations in the World War and, after 1918, remained in Germany's 100,000-man armistice army, where he specialized in staff work.

In a limited operation, RAF Wellingtons raided Marsala, Sicily, the night of May 11-12, starting a huge fire. British fliers of the coastal air force destroyed four enemy planes the same night.

Get Four Messerschmitts.
Four American Spitfire pilots were credited with destruction of four Messerschmitt 109s in recent fighting near Tunis.

Three of Hitler's elite armored divisions no longer exist as a result of the overwhelming allied victory.

The tenth armored division, it fought in Poland and was the spearhead of the thrust through France.

On the Central Russian front, the division saw heavy fighting. It was the first Nazi armored unit to reach Tunisia to oppose the allied advance.

General Fischer, its first African commander, was killed in February and its last commander, Major General Broich, was among the captured generals at British First army headquarters last night.

Fifteenth Division Gone.
The Fifteenth armored division an infantry unit in Germany's peace-time army, was reorganized as an armored unit in 1940. In the spring of 1941 it was sent to Libya where it fought throughout the campaigns culminating in the final allied victory this week.

The Fifteenth was forced to surrender in the Medjerda valley with its commander, Maj. Gen. Willibald Borowetz.

The 21st armored division was formed after the battle of France from units of the Third Armored division. In the summer of 1941 it was reorganized and made a part of Rommel's corps in Libya. Its final stand and its surrender were at Zaghawan, 12 miles to the east. It was not known whether its commander Major General Hildebrandt, was captured.

(The Italian high command announced today that the Italian first army, headed by Marshal Giovanni Messe, ceased fighting this morning by order of Premier Mussolini.

The communiqué, broadcast from Rome and recorded by the Associated Press, said that to this army "fell the honor of the last axis resistance on African soil."

Last-Minute Promotion.
It was the first time that Messe, 59-year-old infantry specialist, had been referred to as marshal.

This suggested a last-minute promotion from General by Mussolini, just as Hitler elevated Gen. Friedrich von Paulus to field marshal last January a few hours before his divisions surrendered to the Red army at Stalingrad.

Allied headquarters said that small isolated pockets of the enemy still remained to be mopped up.

"Further large numbers of prisoners are being collected and, as already announced, it is estimated that at least 150,000 have been taken since May 5" the communiqué said.

"Naval forces still maintain their close watch on both sides on the Cap Bon Peninsula to prevent any escape of the enemy by sea. In the last two days naval units have captured various little parties of troops trying to reach Pantelleria in small boats."

Indian Troops Take General.
The communiqué said that Col. Gen. Jurgen von Arnim, commander in chief who was among 12 axis generals rounded up by the victorious United States, British and French forces, had been captured by troops of the Fourth Indian division yesterday near Ste. Marie Du Zit, midway between Tunis and Enfidaville.

German and Italian troops were taken yesterday morning from Zembra island, 12 miles west of Cap Bon, it was announced.

Large fires were started by Wellington bombers in the dock area of the Sicilian port of Marsala Tuesday night, the communiqué said. Light and medium bombers made the raids on the hold-out enemy positions in Tunisia.

Three planes were reported missing from these offensive thrusts. "Last night enemy bombers attempted an attack on the Algiers area," the communiqué said. "They were driven off by anti-aircraft gunfire and night fighters, at least three enemy aircraft being destroyed. The few bombs dropped caused a very small number of casualties and slight damage to civilian property."

(The German high command,

Sixteen Generals Among Prisoners Taken Tunisia

By The Associated Press
Sixteen generals, headed by the axis commander in chief, have been listed in dispatches as among the prisoners of the allied offensive in Tunisia.

The highest ranking officer among them is Marshal Giovanni Messe, commander of the Italian First Army. A Rome dispatch broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, said General Messe was promoted to Marshal today, "the last day of the resistance of the axis in Africa."

(A Tass dispatch broadcast from Moscow said Soviet newspapers featured "The brilliant victory of allied troops in Africa."

(The communist party newspaper Pravda was quoted as saying that "The collapse of Hitler's gamble in Africa revealed the faults of the Hitlerite strategy, which underestimates the strength and possibilities of the adversary and overestimates its own strength. Whereas the first stages of the African campaign exposed the bankruptcy of the Hitlerite offensive strategy, its finale was a vivid demonstration of the collapse of his defensive strategy."

RAF Bombers Range Aegean Sea.
CAIRO, May 13.—(AP)—British long-range fighters sank a small enemy sailing vessel and damaged at least five others in forays over the Aegean Sea yesterday, a Middle East air communiqué announced today.

A harbor on the Greek island of Syros also was bombed and an enemy seaplane was shot down. All RAF planes were reported to have returned.

Attlee Announces End.
LONDON, May 13.—(AP)—Deputy Prime Minister Clement Attlee, formally announced, the end of the campaign in North Africa, told the house of commons today that the Allies had taken more than 150,000 prisoners and captured over 1,000 guns, 250 tanks and thousands of motor vehicles.

Shipping Losses.
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS in North Africa, May 13.—(AP)—Shipping losses in moving the enormous number of men and supplies into North Africa for the allied campaign have amounted to 2.16 per cent of the total traffic, it was announced officially today.

In the six-month period from Nov. 8, 1942, to May 8 of this year a total of more than 13,000,000 gross tons of shipping arrived in North African ports, including Casablanca from the United Kingdom and the United States.

Since the traffic goes both ways the tonnage actually escorted by the American and British navies thus was more than 22,000,000 tons.

Hi-School Summer Sessions Planned.
G. T. Dickinson was designated principal of Corsicana High school summer school session at a recent meeting of the board of education.

He will be assisted by Miss Hazel Hardage, math and science; Miss Helen Bonner, history; Tom Johnston, math; Mrs. R. N. Elliott, English; L. P. Forsythe, mechanical drawing and shop; and Miss Julia Kiber, intermediate.

Because of the increased demand for credits the program has been extended to cover the entire summer quarter. It will be possible for a student now to make as many as four one-half unit credits.

The usual program will operate for the first 45 days. During this time a student may take one, two or three one-half unit subjects. During the second 45 day period only one one-half unit can be scheduled.

The tuition rates will be $12 for one or two one-half units; $17 for three one-half units; $22 for four one-half units. Tuition in the intermediate grades will be $10 for the first term.

Registration will be on Thursday, June 3, which is the beginning date of the summer school. All classes will be conducted in the senior high school building.

Information From Rationing Board.
Navarro county war price and rationing board has received many rationing sugar applications without receiving the ration book at the same time, and have received ration books without the application.

To make a sensible and accurate rationing sugar certificates, the board must have both the application and the ration book, stated Wilbur Wright, chairman.

May Kill Ruml Plan.
WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—Apparently gaining strength rapidly, administration forces approached today within striking distance of another upset of the skip-a-year plan to put taxpayers on a current payment basis.

Although advocates professed confidence they had the votes to force senate passage of a modified Ruml plan, administration strategists contend the issue is so close it may well go their way on a compromise.

Their way in this case is a substitute offered by Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the finance committee which would abate—instead of a full year's tax liability—75 per cent of the lesser of either 1942 or 1943 taxes for everybody.

President Roosevelt has expressed disapproval of the 100 per cent abatement idea and the administration furnished the major share of the votes when the house twice defeated proposals similar to the senate committee bill the last time by a four-vote margin.

The George substitute in effect, would put taxpayers on a current basis only after they had paid 25 per cent of the abated year's tax plus their 1943 and subsequent years' liabilities.

Texas Schools Buy Bonds to Purchase Over 4,000 Jeeps

Texas schools have gone over the top in raising their quota for the Second Victory War Loan drive. Their goal set by the Treasury Department was to purchase 354 jeeps, $900 in bonds and stamps being considered the cost of one jeep. Final reports from the war savings staff in Austin indicate in excess of 4,000 jeeps purchased by the school children of Texas. The goal set by the Treasury Department for the schools of the entire nation was 10,000 jeeps.

In view of this figure the accomplishment of the Texas school children is outstanding. The San Antonio schools turned in a top record. In excess of $6,000,000 worth of bonds and stamps were sold and purchased through a concerted drive by the combined schools of that city. This fund will be used to purchase 20 Flying Fortresses for the Alamo Squadron.

E-TEX HOLDINGS OF LOCAL OIL OPERATORS SOLD TO STANDOLIND

Corsicana operators were involved in oil transactions whereby the Standolind Oil & Gas Company acquired 184 wells in the East Texas oil fields with a reported estimate of $10,000,000 price, according to a report from Gladewater with the issuance Wednesday of a Texas railroad commission report for April.

The Gladewater dispatch to the Dallas News said that Standolind paid between $80,000 and $90,000 per well for Stroube & Stroube (Corsicana) holders.

W. C. Stroube of Corsicana, a member of the Stroube & Stroube firm, stated Thursday morning that he had no statement to make on the deal, other than to confirm the sale had been consummated and that Stroube & Stroube had sold 64 wells in the East Texas oil field and interest in other holdings in that area. The local firm, however, did not dispose of its holdings in other fields.

Also included in the deal, the dispatch stated, was six wells from Black, Collins and Stroube, six wells from Black and Stroube, and two wells from Collins and Stroube.

The large number of wells involved in the transactions are located in Rusk, Gregg and Upshur counties.

Corsicanans Are Included in List Heroes Decorated

Three U. S. army air forces heroes listed in an Associated Press dispatch from somewhere in Australia, are Corsicanans or former Navarre county residents. They are: Lieut. John C. Mays, Corsicana, Distinguished Flying Cross; Lieut. Richard P. Haney, Dallas, formerly of Corsicana, Purple Heart, and Second Lieut. Tom Cox, Jr., air medal, Mexico, formerly of Richland, newpew of Mrs. W. Pat Brown of Corsicana. Lieut. Haney is the son of John D. Haney of Corsicana.

The article pointed out that "Odds are better than even that in every group at least one will reply to the question of 'What's your home state?'" with a softly-drawn "Texas."

The sons of the Lone Star state have been in the thick of the air battle over the Philippines, over the Dutch East Indies, over Rabaul and over New Guinea. They have sent many of Japan's warships to the bottom and have manned machine guns that found their targets in the Zero's Rising Sun," the article continued.

Several Navarre county aces have been decorated but were not mentioned in the Associated Press article, including Capt. John H. Buie, who saw service at Pearl Harbor, Midway and the Solomons; Roy J. Moore, lieutenant, who is credited with sinking two Japanese ships, now at a rest base in Australia, and Lieut. Carmack Ellis, Dawson, who shot down two Zeros late in December.

Lieut. Haney's crew is credited with shooting down five or more planes in a story released Jan. 21, 1943.

JUDGE HOWELL WAS SPEAKER REGULAR MEETING CIVITANS

"We must first win the war before we dwell on post-war problems," pointed out Judge Wayne Howell in a talk on national and local aspects of the making of the peace, at Civitan Club luncheon Thursday.

"Our leaders cannot possibly specify their plans for post-war peace in detail. That is an impossibility and should not even be tried," he continued. "Though it is all right to lay down the general principles and policies for our nation and our allies to apply when peace comes.

"It would be a mistake for us to try to settle Great Britain's problems, when we have not solved our own. It would be a mistake for us to consider ourselves the 'big shots' in this war, as we are only one nation in a large group of allied nations," the speaker said.

"Peace cannot be written in the aspects of war, as war is so devastating and terrible. It must be written so that a repetition of war would be impossible.

In speaking on the local aspects Judge Howell pointed out that the peace would be made by organized public opinion, of which each individual will have a part to play. He said that everyone should make an intelligent and thorough study of the problems so that they can help to make peace strong and lasting.

Program committee was E. D. McCormick and Festus Pierce, who introduced the speaker. F. V. Williams presided, and Sam Johnson of Dallas was a guest. Tom Orr and Jesse Howell are in charge of the program for next week.

"Art Functioning in a War Program," an exhibit showing the huge part that art is playing in the war world will continue on through June 6th.

COMMISSIONERS TAKE OATH EQUALIZATION BOARD ON MONDAY

Members of the Navarre county commissioners court Monday afternoon took the oath as the board of equalization for 1943 tax matters, but the hearings cannot be started immediately as the tax rolls have not been completed by the force of Halley Blake, assessor and collector of taxes, it was stated.

The court recessed until Friday when it will meet again to consider a refunding program for bonds maturing in road districts that the state will be unable to pay for due to declining gasoline tax revenues in Texas incident to war-time conditions and restrictions. The county contemplates the raising for the regular percent of maturities as in the past but the refunding will be for the unpaid state's part, officials point out.

Navy Identifies 3 Allied Vessels Sunk By Japanese

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—The navy today identified the three allied ships sunk by Japanese planes off Guadalcanal Island in the Solomons April 17 as the American destroyer Aaron Ward, the American tender Kanawha and the New Zealand Corvette Mook.

The identifications were made in a communiqué which also reported a resumption of air attacks against enemy positions on Kiska Island in the Aleutians, three new raids against Japanese bases in the Solomon Islands, and a bombardment by American light warships in the enemy positions at Vila and Munda in the Solomons.

Resumption of air action in the Aleutians ended a four-day period of inactivity described here as resulting from bad weather. The latest attack was made on May 11 and the last raid previously reported against Kiska took place on May 8.

Results of the surface bombardment of Vila and Munda were not given but of the air raids an attack on Kihili Wednesday was reported to have started a number of fires "which appeared to be burning enemy aircraft."

The navy previously had reported on the April 7 Japanese raid, saying that of 98 bombers and fighters which executed the attack 39 planes in all were shot down. While American losses were given as one destroyer, one tanker and one corvette sunk; one small fuel oil boat damaged and a total of seven aircraft lost.

The 1,700-ton Aaron Ward, put into service in March 1942, was commanded by Lieutenant Commander Frederick Julian Beston, 35, of Hot Springs, Ark., and the 1,500-ton Kanawha was commanded by Lieutenant Commander Brainerd Norton Bock, 40, of Landoff, N. H. Both officers survived the loss of their ships.

Ikkes Wants Oil Raise. Petroleum Administrator Ikkes said today he is trying to get Price Administrator Brown to reconsider his refusal to grant a 35-cent average increase per barrel in crude oil prices. He will carry the case to Stabilization Director Byrnes, Ikkes said, if Brown still refuses.

As for Brown's suggestion that the government help finance the drilling or wildcat oil wells rather than grant the increase, Ikkes said that a subsidy "could" increase production but that he was "unprepared to recommend it."

Mrs. W. T. Meadows has returned to her home in Houston after spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clarkston.

MRS. V. CLARK OF WICHITA FALLS IS BURIED CORSICANA

Funeral services for Mrs. V. Clark, who died in Wichita Falls Wednesday, were held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the chapel of the Corley Funeral Home. Dillard W. Thurman, minister of the Church of Christ, conducted the rites. Burial was in Ward cemetery.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Pearl Glabb, Wichita Falls; two sons, Jim Matthews, Pursley; Will Matthews, East Texas; a number of grandchildren and other relatives.

Mrs. Clark lived in Corsicana a number of years, moving to Wichita Falls about five years ago to make her home with her daughter.

Palbearers were O. T. Nutt, Floyd Hayes, Clarence Curington, G. B. Chambers, A. E. Tanner, Porter Tidwell and Hub Ganz.

STIMSON AND HULL HAIL TUNISIA AS FIRST GREAT BLOW

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Secretaries Stimson and Hull hailed the victory in Tunisia today as a forerunner to other great blows against the enemy, while congress arranged to interrupt its work next Wednesday to hear a war speech by Winston Churchill.

The British prime minister will prepare his address at intervals between his current and constant meetings with President Roosevelt on war strategy, which many in the capital believe are giving emphasis to using India as a base for attacks on Japan.

Another government head, President Eduard Benes of Axis-occupied Czechoslovakia, with whom both Mr. Roosevelt and the British leader arranged to talk over the European situation today, spoke to the senate.

Hull, as secretary of state, discussed the Tunisian victory in a message acknowledging congratulations from the Greek government in Cairo.

Secretary of War Stimson praised the planning of General Dwight D. Eisenhower and the execution of those plans by co-ordinated Allied forces.

While the senate moved toward a vote on pay-as-you-go tax legislation, the house approached a decision on extending the administration's reciprocal trade program, there were these other developments:

To Release Illinois Mines.

Lloyd Thrust, president of the Progressive Mine Workers (AFL) announced that the government has agreed to release from its operating control the approximately 150 Illinois mines having contracts with his union.

Fuels Administrator Ikkes, federal boss of the nation's coal mines, said it is "up to the government to take the next step" in the miner-operator dispute, but he added that this step would have to be taken by some agency other than his.

President Roosevelt asked congress for another $400,000,000 for war housing.

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau told a press conference that he still hopes congress will enact new taxes to yield an additional $16,000,000,000.

The possibilities of India as a strategic site for Allied stabs at Japan were believed to be under discussion today as President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill continued their council of war, flanked by top-flight fighting men from the India-Burma theater.

That such discussions would stress importance of re-opening the Burma Road—now under enemy control—to throw the full and well-supplied weight of Allied military might against Japan's Asiatic flank also was thought likely.

On the home front, the news that the United States "at last has the machine tools and the capital equipment it needs to build production to defeat the Axis" was tempered by a threat of unemployment in munitions centers.

However, WEP officials declared that every worker thus released could be absorbed quickly by other war industries which still are clamoring for help.

A prediction by VPR Chairman Donald M. Nelson that this year's aircraft will have an average weight twice as great as last year indicated that President Roosevelt's new 1943 production goal will mean about 75,000 planes.

Administration efforts to again dynamite the Ruml slip-a-year income tax plan gained strength in the senate, and although its advocates claimed confidence in their vote-power, talk of a compromise was being heard.
